The town also offers a wide variety of eateries, bars, and shops serving both local and foreign cuisines, as well as traditional Mozambique fare.

Durban, South Africa

The Indian and colonial influences on this coastal city in South Africa are undeniable, and the fusion of the two cultures and architectural styles makes Durban distinctive in the country. The combination of natural beauty and a contemporary resort draws surfers, families, and fishermen to Durban's Golden Mile. This is a great place to visit for both families and couples because there are so many big city attractions .
